

WILLOWS ACADEMY

Open Position: Catholic Theology or Classical Philosophy Teacher
Reports to: Assistant Head of School
Member of: Philosophy and Theology Faculty

Start Date: August 8, 2024

Duties:

Willows seeks a candidate to teach Catholic Theology and Classical Philosophy at the high school and/or middle school level. This part-time or full-time position requires background and connection to the Catholic faith and to the spirituality of Opus Dei, a personal prelature of the Catholic Church. Candidates should have a passion for and experience/potential to teach the Catholic faith and doctrine to young people in an attractive manner open to dialogue and able to accompany them through doubts and be able to contribute to a strong Theology program and Theology department.

Philosophy and Theology Department Philosophy:

Willows guides your daughter in three core messages:

1. Embracing her identity as a daughter and friend of God.
2. Pursuing a progressively deeper understanding of the Faith and its complementarity with reason.
3. Growing in authentic freedom and responsibility through living out and spreading our Faith in love and service to others.

The Theology Department offers a full seven year curriculum in theology. The program is designed to provide a comprehensive study of the Roman Catholic faith, sacramental life, and morals. Through this the students develop a progressively deeper understanding of the reasonableness of these teachings, as befitting an academic level equivalent to their other studies. In addition to coursework, students have the opportunity to develop their life of piety, frequent the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Penance, and receive spiritual direction. The Department also offers a curriculum in Philosophy.
