

WILLOWS ACADEMY

Open Position: Spanish Teacher
Reports to: Head of School
Member of: World Language Faculty
Salary Range: $45,000-$55,000

Start Date: August 08, 2025

Duties:

Willows seeks a candidate to teach Spanish at the high school level. This full-time position requires background and expertise in Spanish language, grammar, and culture and experience and/or potential to teach Spanish I-IV and AP Spanish. Candidates should have a passion for engaging girls in world language and culture and be able to contribute to a strong Spanish program and World Language department.

World Language Department Philosophy:

The World Languages Department offers modern romance languages (French and Spanish) as well as the opportunity to independently study Greek or Latin. As students become proficient in second language skills, they acquire grammar, pronunciation, reading and writing skills, and an awareness of cultural nuances that will allow them to successfully communicate in a globally connected world. Students will develop an understanding of and appreciation for different cultures while examining their own social and cultural milieus with a fresh perspective. The study of a world language is a progressive experience and implies progressive acquisition of linguistic skills. Reading, writing, speaking, and listening are emphasized. Introductory Latin is an elective for any high school student.
